Core Leadership Practices

Public Courses

The objective of the Core Leadership Practices (CLP) Public Course is to introduce executives to the most comprehensive leadership framework available. This is an opportunity for organizations to discover exactly how incorporating CLP can assist them in achieving strategy.

Participants will take away valuable lessons about the benefits of an organizational leadership framework, as well immediately useful tips and best practices for managerial leadership.

Format

- Lecture demonstration, action-learning and exercises
- 3 days

Ideal Participants

HR, organizational development, and other executives looking for:

- An effective leadership development framework that will fit their corporate culture
- A “map” of the best practices of managerial leadership

Investment

$1950/participant

Continental breakfast and lunch is provided

Upcoming Public CLPs

Public courses are held as often as there is sufficient demand. Please let us know if you would like to join us at a future delivery.
